IN APPRECIATION

Through her origin of the name Ole Miss, Miss Elma Meek has won a merited place in the hearts of all who have been in any way connected with the University of Mississippi. In 1896 a contest was sponsored to select a title for the newly-organized yearbook. Ole Miss, the name submitted by Miss Meek who was then a student at the University, was chosen; and it is under that name that the yearbook still appears. Since, however, the name has come to apply to the entire University, Ole Miss has become a traditional symbolism in the minds of the students of the University; and it is in sincere appreciation of Miss Meek's contribution that we issue this column of The Ole Miss.

GOV. THOMAS L. BAILEY

Governor Thomas L. Bailey, Governor of the State of Mississippi and ex officio President of the Board of Trustees, is continuously working for the betterment of the State of Mississippi and its educational system.

THE CHANCELLOR

The University of Mississippi is fortunate in having as Chancellor, Alfred Benjamin Butts. When Chancellor Butts left in July of 1942 on military leave there was an empty place in the hearts of the University students and officials which was not filled again until his return in 1943. Chancellor Butts, whose personality combines intellect, foresight, and high ideals, is a friend to all who come in contact with him. His fairness and ability in seeing and acting on issues concerning the students has won for him admiration from many.

ALFRED BENJAMIN BUTTS

Events OF THE YEAR

For the fourth consecutive year, war is, on the Ole Miss campus as it is everywhere, the dominating factor. Constant change, continued disruption—and yet through it all, the steadfast determination toward the traditional, the usual, the old way of life. Activities which at first were cast aside to make place for war changes, are gradually creeping back into their original places—indicative of the endeavor to fight a total war and at the same time to cling to the way of the past.

Dr. A. W. Green, absent since February, 1942, as lieutenant colonel in the Judge Advocate General's department, returned in September to resume his position as dean of Graduate School and professor of English. Dr. Green, who served in this country and abroad, re-entered service in December, however, this time in the Army of Occupation.

Dr. James W. Silver, acting professor of history for the past two years, was given leave of absence to serve in the American Red Cross.

He left in February to be trained, after which he will be stationed overseas as personnel representative to men in combat areas.

At the opening of this year, the enrollment of women reached the highest peak yet attained. Ricks Hall, which had been closed for several years, was opened to take care of this increase in women students. An attempt toward prewar status was made when football and band activities, excluded during the past year, were reinstated. The band, which was directed by Mrs. J. W. Wood, played for the football games both on the campus and off; for the first time in the history of Ole Miss, girls were allowed to participate. Football held its usual place in interest and enthusiasm as in the days when the stadium was packed with fans who had driven a hundred or more miles and had given it little thought.

Students and faculty have been fortunate, despite war-time travel limitations, to have Lyceum programs and ODK-Mortar Board forums of special interest. In a musical vein have been Kryl's all-girl symphonic orchestra and the Trapp Family singers. First in a series of speakers was Captain Robert G. Turner whom the Forum Committee brought from Greenville Air Base to talk on "America and World Peace." Captain Turner was a member of the Michigan State College faculty in the speech and political science departments. Next was Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association, who discussed the general subject of medicine and the changing social order. Following Dr. Fishbein was Ely Culbertson who presented his plan for world peace. Although Mr. Culbertson's purpose was to present this plan and to discuss his book, "Total Peace," he also played and discussed several hands of contract bridge for Culbertson Bridge fans.

Thus the year has gone—a little less confusion—a little nearer victory—but overshadowing all else, a greater realization of the totality of war as it effects each individual.

The main motive of the associated student body Executive Council is to render service to students. The officers are elected from the entire student body, and the council members include the student head of each school, also the president of the Women's Student Government Association, and one representative from each of the publications.

This council students are represented on the following committees: Faculty, Athletic, General Assembly, Lyceum, and Social Affairs. Student Body Dances are also conducted by the Executive Council. The War Bond Drive was successfully carried out through this council. Other acts of service to students are the operation of the Student Bank, publication of Student Directory, operation of the Book Exchange on a non-profit basis, and the sale of car tags.

Women's Student Government Association

The Women's Student Government Association is the governing body of the women students of the University. Authority is vested in an Executive Council, which is selected by student vote, and a Legislative Council, made up of representatives from each class and dormitory. The Association is a member of the National Intercollegiate Association of Women Students and of the Mississippi Intercollegiate Women's Student Government Association. Each woman student is a member of the Women's Student Government Association, and is required to be familiar with its rules and regulations. A handbook containing all regulations guiding the conduct of women students is issued regularly.

The "Ole Miss" is the student yearbook which pictures the life of the students at the University. The annual is usually released in April or May. Positions on the staff are open to all students. Realizing the responsibility which has been placed upon them, the Editor and Business Manager, with the excellent cooperation of both staffs, have done their utmost to give the Student Body a yearbook that truly portrays the many activities that are giving real spirit to the University of Mississippi.

Under the direction of Miriam Horne, the first woman editor in the history of the publication, "The Mississippian," the official newspaper of the Ole Miss student body, continued publication this year as "The Rebel's Weekly Newspaper." Wartime restrictions, lack of experienced personnel, as well as curtailed student activities, increased the task which brought forth weekly stories of overcut classes, red-rimmed eyes, and endless cups of coffee, but the weekly deadline was met with a staff which included Huldah Cousins as news editor, Earle Ruff and Tom Muse as sports editors, and Peggy Davis and Bobbie Nelson as society editors.

Handling the financial department of the paper for the year was Wilma Yandell, business manager, whose duties were taken over second semester by Roscoe Carty. Capable assistants from a staff headed by Dot Townsend, assistant business manager, made possible the intensive advertising campaigns which helped to keep the presses rolling.

To these few, then, who have worked so diligently, we owe the 1944-45 issues of "The Mississippian," which have been characterized by improved makeup plans, a courageous but firm editorial policy, and new head schedules.

"The Mississippi Law Journal" is the official organ of the Mississippi State Bar. It is published by the student members of the University Law School, who work under the direction and supervision of the law school faculty and the governing board of the State Bar. "The Journal" appears four times annually and is now in its seventeenth year of publication. Contemporary trends of the Anglo-Saxon law are the subjects presented in leading articles, notes and comments, and book reviews, which emphasize particularly development in Mississippi.

The Alumni Association is composed of all former students of the University. Through this organization each alumnus is given a chance to serve and assist in the progress of the University. The official publication of the association is the "Alumni News," which is issued every quarter. The Alumni Association holds its annual business meeting on Homecoming Day of each year.

Omicron Delta Kappa

Omicron Delta Kappa was founded in 1914 at Washington and Lee University, and Alpha Phi Circle of ODK was established here at Ole Miss in 1936. The objectives of this national honorary leadership fraternity are recognition of conspicuous leadership among men students and faculty members, and service in the task of building a greater Ole Miss. New members are elected to ODK twice each year, on the criteria of character, scholarship, and leadership.

Alpha Lambda Delta, a national honorary scholastic fraternity, was established on the Ole Miss campus in 1930. Membership in the organization, which requires a 2.5 quality point average, is the highest honor attainable for any freshman woman. The purpose of the organization is to promote intelligent living and a higher standard of learning, and to encourage superior scholastic attainment among the freshman women in institutions of higher learning. Miss Estella G. Hefley, Dean of Women, and Miss Evelyn Way, professor of classics, sponsor this honorary fraternity.

Hermaean

Hermaean, a national literary society and one of the oldest organizations on the campus, was formed for the advancement of speaking ability and for a quickening of interest in affairs of the government. Since the establishment of the local chapter in 1848, it has never ceased to be active on the Ole Miss campus. The officers are as follows: Don Dismukes, President; Pat Smith, Vice-President; and Scott Houston, Secretary and Treasurer. During the current year, Hermaean has twenty-five members, nineteen of whom were tapped this year. Hermaean not only strives to develop speaking ability, but also character, fellowship, and to make leaders of the young men.

The Newman Club is an affiliation of the International Federation of Newman Clubs, and serves the social and spiritual interests of Catholic students on this campus. The purpose of this organization is to bring about a closer fellowship among the students, working under the guidance of Father Manon. The officers are: Clare Sekul, President; Ben Quintana, Vice-President; Audrey Mead, Secretary-Treasurer; Effie Overby, Corresponding Secretary.

After an absence from the University campus of one year, the famed Ole Miss Band returned in 1944 with Mrs. J. W. Wood, a special student in the School of Music, as the instructor. Although girls were allowed to participate as band members for the first time, the band is only half the original size.

The band made three appearances at the Arkansas game, at the Jackson Army Air Base game and at the Ole Miss-State game.

More than the usual number of drum majors, all of whom are outstanding in the state, added color on each appearance.

Alvin Maples, who has been four times Mississippi champion drum major, is head drum major. Baton twirlers who have been named are Brett Jackson, Buddy Huggins, and W. G. Barner. The girls who appear with the band are Nova Lee Smith, who was Tennessee state champion and runner-up for Midsouth Champion; Ygondine Walker, who was holder of a first place award in the state and also Midsouth runner-up, and Grace Haney. Major-ettes are Gladys Ramsey, Ella Rita O'Neil, and Marinell Rayburn.

Military instruction at the University is in the hands of Major David B. Doty, Jr. The R. O. T. C. unit at present time is comparatively small. However, the unit is of great value to boys who will soon be taken into military service. Student personnel of the Infantry Battalion is carried on by the following officers: Bob Gilbertson, Cadet Captain and Company Commander; Don Dismukes, Cadet Captain and assistant instructor; James Avent, Cadet Lieutenant in command of second platoon; Gregory Kergosian, Cadet Lieutenant in command of first platoon; and William Maroney, Cadet First Sergeant.

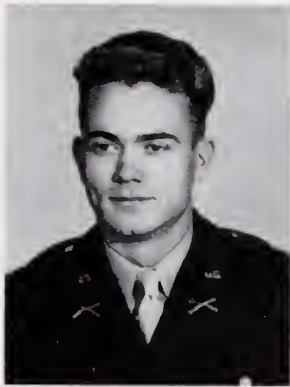

The unit has done exceptionally well this year and has high hopes of again making honor school. This rating is decided by a government inspection held annually in the spring.

Miss Frances Moore, Editor
1945 OLE MISS
University of Mississippi
University, Mississippi

My dear Miss Moore:

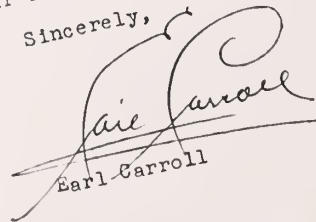

I am honored to be selected again to judge your Campus Beauty for the 1945 OLE MISS. I am sorry you limited me to only five. I have never seen a prettier group.

My choice is:

1. Tommie Hearn
2. Shirley Perry
3. Mary Evelyn Abernathy
4. Lila Lee Nasser
5. Sunny Sage

All of the girls were indeed exceptionally lovely and I sincerely hope that my selections meet with the approval of those who will have the privilege of enjoying their loveliness in person.

Sincerely,

Earl Carroll

Ole Miss is attempting to carry on a full time athletic program with one of the smallest coaching staffs in the history of the institution. Heading the Department of Athletics, and head coach of football is Harry J. Mehre who acted as backfield coach during the football season. Coach Mehre is acknowledged to be one of the top men in his profession. Acting coach of basketball and baseball, and end coach of football, E. W. (Goat) Hale is also the head scout of football prospects. Louis B. (Farmer) Johnson, who came to the University from North Carolina State, was added to the staff in the spring of '44 as line coach. Rounding out the athletic personnel is Ed Stone, instructor in physical education and football scout.

Great game, fellows.

The flip for the kickoff, and . . .

the usual preliminary.

THE '44 SEASON

The Rebels' 1944 football season, according to the record books was far from a successful one. Ole Miss was forced to play one of the hardest schedules in the nation with, perhaps, the youngest team. Coach Mehre made a promise to the student body and to the alumni in the spring of 1944 that the coming season was not to be the important one. The emphasis would be in securing material that would help the University in the years following the war. To accomplish this, football prospects were judged for their possible benefit to Ole Miss later on as well as in the current season. The result of the final game of the year justified Coach Mehre's faith in building for the future with young men who can be developed into outstanding gridiron performers. They will constitute the nucleus of great Rebel elevens to come. It is safe to say that future stars blazing across the football heavens will be players like Bruce, McCain, Brewer, Pearce, Hooker, Butler, Clark, Arnette, Tiblier, Rose and a host of others who received little national recognition for work well done in a losing cause.

Captain, Prexy, Dean—BEAT STATE.

They cheered Rebels to fame.

Kentucky 26—Ole Miss 6

OSCAR BUCHANAN

When Coach Mehre took his football team to Lexington to meet the highly regarded University of Kentucky Wildcats, it was weight and experience that won 26 to 6 for Kentucky. The lighter Rebels could do nothing with the Wildcat line that averaged 204 pounds to the man and was composed of 4-F's and returned veterans. However, Ole Miss, led by Johnnie Bruce and Jerry Tiblier, took the opening kickoff and drove straight down the field for a touchdown. A disastrous second quarter in which Kentucky racked up 20 points spelled defeat for a team that had Captain Bob McCain as the only experienced man on the squad.

Ole Miss 26—Florida 6

Ole Miss hit the victory column for the first time against the University of Florida at Jacksonville when they put the works to the 'Gators 26 to 6. Clyde Hooker and Aaron Timmons took charge of a fourth-quarter Rebel scoring spree that saw them gain 19 points in less than eight minutes. Jimmie Butler played a great defensive game at guard when he and Jerry Tiblier sparked two magnificent goal-line stands that found the Rebels twice stopping Florida inside the three-yard line.

Downed . . .

Tennessee 20—Ole Miss 7

October 7 found a Rose Bowl-bound Tennessee team taking the Rebels 20 to 7. Major, on the first play of the game, sneaked 76 yards for a Tennessee touchdown. Ole Miss rallied briefly when McCain went 69 yards to score in the second quarter and Hooker tied it up with a perfect placement. The Vols wrapped up the game with touchdowns in the second and third quarters, while Ole Miss ran the ball over the gridiron without being able to score again.

The inexperienced Ole Miss eleven learned the hard way against Tulsa U's gridiron machine. The Golden Hurricane played 40 men, mostly seasoned veterans, to smother the Rebels 46 to 0. Even the Tulsa team steered clear of Arnette and McCain who came into their own as great players that afternoon.

Arkansas 26 Ole Miss 18

Ole Miss played the strong Arkansas team off its feet for three quarters, only to lose 26 to 18. It was a heart-breaking afternoon for the Rebels who came from behind twice, had one touchdown called back, and seemed to have a safe five-point lead at the end of the third quarter. Brents, Blackwell, Hooker, Timmons, and McCain gave the opposition fits.

Jackson Army Base 10—Ole Miss 0

Looka there, man—

A highly underrated Jackson Army Air Base eleven eeked out a 10 to 0 win. Tiblier, H. C. Rose, Hooker, and Pearce outgained the Army crew 100 yards, only to be stopped twice on the three-yard line. Ole Miss shook Pearce loose for 76 yards, Hooker for 69, Tiblier for 48 and Timmons for 35 only to see them all hauled down before reaching pay dirt.

good game with that waiting.

Alabama 35—Ole Miss 7

The Alabama story can be told in three simple words—"too much football." Ole Miss went to Mobile after playing six tough games with practically no rest to meet a "victory hungry" Alabama team and was defeated 35 to 7. The Rebels flashed to life only once in the game when they made scoring look simple by driving 60 yards against Alabama's first team in the second quarter to score their only touchdown. Bruce sent Hooker across for the tally with a beautiful pass from the 35-yard line.

No, no—it can't be.

Ole Miss 13—State 8

An inspired Ole Miss team wound up an unsuccessful season by turning it into a success with a stunning upset over Mississippi State 13 to 8. The Rebels rode to glory on the running of Bob McCain, who went 22 yards on an end around to score the first touchdown, and on the magic toe and left arm of a kid named Johnnie Bruce, who kicked and passed the Maroons dizzy all afternoon. Ole Miss broke a 6-6 tie in the third period by traveling 65 yards on three passes and two running plays for the points that meant the game. Bruce carried over on a quarter-back sneak. Big Jimmie Clark, out all season with a charley-horse, constantly jammed up the State offense and took charge of a goal-line stand that found the Rebels stopping State's great Shorty McWilliams cold in the last minute of the game. The Maroons scored once on a pass from Colston to Moore and again when Horne blocked a Bruce kick for a safety. Little Rex Pearce did his share by pulling Moore down from behind after a 50-yard race for the goal line, while Jack Brewer wrote his name in Ole Miss football history with his great play at end. In fact, the entire Rebel team were the heroes of a victory that brought the famed "Golden Egg" back to the campus after a four-year absence.

Parks, on the Ole Miss goal line, fought for yards.

France had the ball, but the rebels closed in.

The Intramural Council is composed of representatives from the nine organizations of men at Ole Miss who participate in the intramural competition. The intramural program was started six years ago to help promote competitive athletics among the men students. The program has grown to include nearly every sport in the sporting world. There are five awards made each year—one for football, one for basketball, one for softball, and the cup given to the organization who has the most points at the end of the year; then there is an individual award given to the most outstanding athlete during the year's sports. Any organization of men connected with the student body may choose a representative to meet with the council at the beginning of each school year. These representatives elect their own officers who preside over the council. Pete Topp is president of Intramural and Coach Ed Stone is the director of intramural sports.

The Chi O's are now spending their 46th year on the Ole Miss campus, having been established here in 1899. Chi Omega Sorority was founded four years previously at the University of Arkansas. Louise Avent, a combination of leadership, brains and beauty, is President. Jean Simmons, little in stature but big in campus activities, holds second place office as Vice-President. Stig Lear, past Military Sponsor and Campus Favorite, takes care of the records, and last but not least is Jane Middleton who keeps the Chi O's straight on their money matters. The flower is the white carnation and the colors are cardinal and straw.

The Tri Delts settled themselves comfortably on the Ole Miss campus in 1926, after being founded in 1888 at Boston University. Cherry Sisk, head cheerleader and the present "Miss Ole Miss," heads this organization. Joyce Blomquist, Mortar Board member and holder of other campus honors, is Vice-President. Virginia Wittjen, outstanding Physical Ed girl, corresponds for the Tri Delts and Elizabeth Sisk, campus beauty, is Recording Secretary. Theo Learned is entrusted with the sorority's funds. The colors are silver, blue, and gold and the flower is the pansy. The Tri Delts have a membership of 68.

The Phi Mu Sorority came to the Ole Miss campus in the fall of 1925, after being founded at Wesleyan College way back in the year 1852. This sorority is headed by campus favorite Frances Phelps, with little Miss Sara Ruth Usher serving as Vice-President. Marguerite Brunson serves in the office of Secretary and Lela Gene Cox is the girl they trust with their money. All these Phi Mu leaders are campus-wide favorites. The enchantress carnation is the flower and the sorority color is rose and white.

The only sorority ever to be founded in Oxford is Delta Gamma which was founded here at Lewis School in 1874. Delta Gamma left the campus for a long time only to be re-established here in 1936. Its beautiful colonial house was built as a memorial by the national chapter. Marvine McNeil is President of the D G's; Jane Dees is its Vice-President; Frances Hand serves as Secretary; and last but not least is Rose Marie Godwin who is the Delta Gamma Treasurer. The flower is the lovely cream colored rose and the colors they wear are bronze, pink, and blue.

Thirty years after its founding in 1887, Kappa Delta came to the Ole Miss campus. President this year of the KD's is Miriam Horne, Editor of the "Mississippian" and vivacious campus leader. Corrine Baggett, wit, sage, and campus cutie, is Vice-President. She also has as her duty the job of keeping the pledges straight. Betty Brueck, President of the Women's Y, is secretary. Ann Finch, leader in the WAA, ASB secretary, and campus favorite, is Treasurer. The colors are green and white and the flower is the white rose. Alpha Mu chapter boasts 41 members.

Along about in 1927 Delta Zeta Sorority came to the Ole Miss campus after being founded at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in 1902. Heading the Delta Zeta Sorority is Wilma Newsom. In second place office as Vice-President is Edwina Jones. Billye Biggart takes care of the records very ably while Edna Acree keeps up with the money in the office of Treasurer. The Delta Zeta flower is the Killarney rose, and the colors are old rose and vieux green.

"Baby" of the Ole Miss sororities in regard to time spent on the Ole Miss campus, is Zeta Tau Alpha, having been established here in 1939. Virginia Breytspraak, Pan-Hellenic head, is the head Zeta. Following next is Vice-President Mozelle Smith, who is definitely known as a campus favorite. It's only natural that Joyce Litton should be Zeta Secretary for she is such a big shot in BSC school and knows her one, two, threes. Mary Davis is Treasurer, all of which goes to prove ability to do most anything, including collecting dues. The white violet and the colors turquois blue and grey are two outstanding symbols of Zeta.

Tete-tete over bridge.

We can think of former days.

In Acknowledgment

War, unsettled conditions, lack of materials, the need for speed, a set-back at every turn—all of these made this a doubtful venture, and without the help of certain people it would have become a disastrous venture. So we remember and thank the members of Benson Printing Co., Mr. W. A. Benson, Mr. Robert Eckhart, Mr. Nis Hansen, Mr. J. R. Cofield, Mr. Cy Swatek, and the members of the Publications Board, particularly Dean E. L. Hammond and Dr. C. F. Dunham. To the staff, especially Guy Campbell, without whose photographic work the book would have been impossible, Bobbie Nelson, Mary Gene Hoffman, and Mary Alice Wisdom, and to those students who took more than a passing interest in the annual, we owe many sincere thanks.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI

1945

The University is composed of the following divisions: the College of Liberal Arts, the Schools of Law, Engineering, Education, Medicine, Pharmacy, Commerce and Business Administration, the Graduate School, and University Extension.

Splendid facilities for general and specialized education are provided by the Liberal Arts College and the Professional Schools.

SUMMER SESSION, 1945

Six Weeks Term (for Teachers) June 4-July 13
First Eight Weeks Term June 4-July 26
Second Eight Weeks Term July 27-September 14

Students attending both eight-week terms will be able to complete a full semester's work of eighteen hours. Courses will be offered in the College of Liberal Arts, the Graduate School, and in the Schools of Law, Commerce and Business Administration, Engineering, Pharmacy, Medicine, and Education. Recreation—Excellent athletic and recreational facilities insure ample opportunities for exercise and relaxation. An excellent swimming pool, a superb golf course, numerous tennis courts, and many indoor games provide attractions for every one.

Write to the Director of the Summer Session, University, Mississippi, for the Summer Session Bulletin.
